RE: UintaVision, Inc. drug distribution schedule during the holidays

MEMORANDUM

The information in this memorandum affects the timing of drug ordering and shipping for Southwest Oncology Group protocols ordering study drugs from UintaVision, Inc. over the Christmas and New Year's holidays. The UPS Logistics warehouse, which ships the study drugs, will be closed on December 26, 2005, December 30, 2005 and January 2, 2006 and will not be shipping study drugs for any of the Southwest Oncology Group studies. UintaVision, Inc. will remain open to monitor calls and address any pressing issues during these times. Please plan drug ordering accordingly.
